The Danger of an Unguarded Heart

Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal.

But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in or steal; for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

The eye is the lamp of the body; so then if your eye is clear, your whole body will be full of light.

But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.

Matthew 6:19-24 NASB

We think and act from the heart out.

Our hearts gather momentum in the direction of what we treasure.

Values are the gatekeepers of our imagination and affection.

“Values” is knowing the answer to the question before it comes.

Choosing the right values is an opportunity to surrender.

Embracing these values is a sign of faith in God.
